CENTRAL ALBERTA
SEXUAL ASSAULT SUPPORT CENTRE

The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes Series has partnered with The Central Alberta Sexual Assault Support Centre in the hopes of raising awareness to their #irespect campaign.

The lack of respect is one of the root cause of too many problems. Bullying, harassment, violence, depression, sickness, wars and many others. We don't have a magic wand to make this world instantly respectful but we can all make a difference in our life, our workplace and our community. More respect means better relationships, less employee turnover, less absenteeism, better health, less violence in our community, better grades at school and many other benefits. By promoting respect for others, you promote respect for yourself which is the most important. Join the #iRespect.info campaign! Together, we can make this world a better place.

Director's Message:

It has been an absolute blast working on this series. I have been blown away by the support of the community. When the first show, A Study in Scarlet, sold out, we were thrilled and very excited. This time around, our one-acts sold out before the first rehearsal even started. I have thoroughly enjoyed working with this cast and crew. They have truly embraced the episodic nature of this series. Over the next two-and-a-half years I have some fun and exciting plans for Sherlock Holmes and Doctor Watson. Part of the fun is that the actors are not fully aware of all of the plans and are hopefully just as excited as you are for the big reveals of the series. I want to extend my gratitude to Central Alberta Theatre for going all in on this series, and allowing us to really do our thing. Nicole Leal is a fantastic production manager, and always seems to be able to anticipate our needs before they happen. Speaking of anticipating needs, our stage management crew has done a phenomenal job on these shows. Leading the team is Braden Guido, who is skillfully guiding our stage management newcomers Reina and Rachel. Our costume designer Gwendolyn has once again amazed me in her ability to get the costumes just right.

I want to send a special thanks to my brilliant wife, Tara; she always inspires me to be the best I can be. She is my editor during my writing process, and provides me with unwavering support.

I hope you enjoy the shows, and I encourage you to grab your tickets to our June show, The Sign of the Four, which will go on sale February 26th at 9AM.
